

BREAKING HABITS AND DISCOVERING THE JOYS OF LEARNING

FROM THE DESK OF BARB GELB DIRECTOR OF LIFELONG LEARNING

I am a creature of habit. I like to have the same breakfast every morning – scrambled egg whites with spinach and avocado. I never stray from my coffee order – dark roast, black. Every Wednesday night after Religious School I tune out the world and watch Nashville.

One of my best habits is that I go to the gym every day and work out on the treadmill. I was very proud of this habit until recently when I learned that if you do the same exercise every day, it loses its effect. This is not good news for a middle-aged woman, so I decided I had to do something about it. I noticed that there were lots of different and interesting classes offered at my gym, and I decided to challenge myself to try them all. I was ready to shake things up a bit and create some new habits. Not wanting to make a huge commitment, I dipped my toe in, and slowly but surely I have been working my way through cycling, body works, mat pilates, yoga, zumba and cardio kickboxing. Some classes have been a lot of fun, others torturous, but the bottom line is that I have learned something from each of them, and it feels good to learn something new.

As the great sage Hillel said, “He who does not increase his knowledge, decreases it.” By not trying new things, we are actually diminishing the effectiveness of what we do know. Now that I have tried pilates, I understand more about my core and can actually have a more effective workout on the treadmill.

Of course this applies to far more in life than exercise. There is so much to learn! There are so many interesting topics, books, films and people to learn from and about. At Temple Ahavat Shalom we’d like to help you increase your knowledge through our lifelong learning offerings. You don’t have to make a big commitment all at once. Dip a toe in, and see how it feels.

In this issue of the Menorah you will find information about exciting learning opportunities for adults here at TAS. I’d like to point out a couple of them.

The first is a new program called “TAS Tuesdays.” Once a month, we’ll invite you to come together as an adult learning community. Our first TAS Tuesday will be February 11th at 6:00 p.m. We’ll have some wine and cheese, and we’ll offer three class options from which you can choose. After an hour of learning, we’ll gather together for dessert.

Secondly, we are so excited to be hosting renowned Judaica artist Gary Rosenthal as our Artist-in-Residence February

21st – 23rd. Adults will have a special and unique opportunity to learn from him and create their own Judaica pieces on Saturday evening, February 22nd at 7:00 p.m. It will be a magical night and another chance to learn and grow.

I urge you to challenge yourself to break your habits and try something new. Come with your friends, or come to make new friends. Come to increase your knowledge. Leave feeling good about it!

BOOK GROUP TO DISCUSS "BEYOND HITLER'S GRASP: THE HEROIC RESCUE OF BULGARIA'S JEWS" ON THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13

The congregation is welcome to attend the discussion of Dr. Michael Bar-Zohar's book, Beyond Hitler's Grasp: The Heroic Rescue of Bulgaria's Jews, on Thursday evening, February 13, in the Library/Chapel. Gloria Katcher will be the facilitator.

While most are familiar with the rescue of the Danish Jews, little is it known that Bulgaria was the only Axis-aligned country not to deport a single one of its 50,000 Jewish citizens to Poland and certain death. Dr. Bar-Zohar is a distinguished Israeli historian who describes in dramatic fashion the heroic actions taken in March and May 1943 by King Boris, Metropolitan Stefan of the Orthodox church, non-Jewish parliamentarians, and leaders of the country's Jewish community to keep the Jews of Bulgaria out of Hitler's grasp.

Doors open at 7:00 pm for refreshments, and the discussion begins promptly at 7:30 pm. While there is no membership requirement, a $5 donation per person is requested. For those interested in accessing the reading list online, Google Temple Ahavat Shalom Book Group.

SPOTLIGHT ON SISTERHOOD

On January 3rd Rabbi Shawna spoke about the New Year and how there are many new beginnings throughout the year. For example, there is the school year, Rosh Hashanah, the fiscal year and the secular New Year. Basically, any time can be a good time for a new beginning. So why not make the very next Sisterhood event a new beginning for yourselves? Come join Sisterhood and be part of this amazing group of women from the Temple Ahavat Shalom community. We look forward to spending time with you and getting to know you.

PROGRAMMING

“Be vigilant” was the key lesson at the January 12th presentation by Michael Risman, who represented Americans United for Separation of Church & State, hosted by Sisterhood and Men of TAS. Mr. Risman summarized the history of religious freedom from ancient times to the present, pondered the intent of the First Amendment, and delved into current issues being decided at all levels of the justice system, including the Supreme Court. Hitting very close to home was explaining the establishing of Good News clubs in some of our local elementary schools. These are sponsored by an evangelical Christian organization. We also talked about the “Faith Based Initiative,” what constitutes “proper” prayer at government meetings, the various points of view on the Pledge of Allegiance and a host of other topics. For additional information about Americans United for Separation of Church & State, click on www.au.org.

On January 23rd we had the opportunity to hear from author Maggie Anton who spoke to us about her latest book Rav Hista's Daughter.

EDUCATION

Do you have a child who attended a Jewish camp or went on a trip to Israel this past year? Do you know that every year our Sisterhood and Men of TAS give camperships to help support these activities? All you have to do is download the application off the TAS website and follow the directions. Your child will need to do some volunteer hours prior to the due date, so download the application now in order for you to be able to plan accordingly. Giving your child the experience of Jewish camp is one of the best ways to ensure that they continue to live a Jewish life into adulthood, and we are here to support their efforts. If you have any question contact Jennifer Kosoy, VP of Education at jmkosoy@gmail.com, or call (818) 427-2720.

COUPONS FOR MILITARY FAMILIES

TAS Sisterhood is pleased to announce that this month we were able to send two boxes of coupons to overseas bases. The coupons went to the Air Force/Marine Unit and to the Navy stationed in Japan. The families appreciate the coupons since prices are very high overseas.

Thank you for cutting and sorting your coupons. They should be sorted into envelopes and labeled "FOOD" and "NOT FOOD." This makes it more convenient for the recipients to find what is needed.

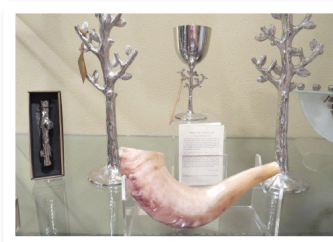

The boxes sent are the very largest Flat Rate. These go to an APO, so we pay domestic postage. The boxes are stuffed as full as possible, and several pounds of coupons reach those who need them.

They do accept expired coupons and all coupons must be cut. Sheets of uncut coupons cannot be sent out and will be recycled. Volunteers who can cut coupons are welcome. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer to cut coupons, please call Mel Birken at (818) 366-2397.
