"THE FAMILY: THREE JOURNEYS INTO THE HEART OF THE 20TH CENTURY" IS BOOK GROUP'S NOVEMBER SELECTION

Please join us as Dr. Allan Katcher facilitates the Book Group's discussion of David Laskin's highly acclaimed portrait of his family, Three Journeys into the Heart of the 20th Century, on Thursday, November 13.

Laskin conveniently provides a family tree to assist readers as they trace the far-flung journeys taken by the descendants of his maternal great great great grandparents, Shimon Dov Hakohen and Beyle Shapiro.

As Laskin explains: "The three branches of my mother's family endured and enacted the great Jewish upheavals of the twentieth century — mass immigration to the United States, the founding of Israel, and the Shoah. My grandfather and his first cousins fought in two world wars, ran two successful businesses, copied Torah scrolls, planted citrus groves in Palestine, lived in a mansion by the sea on Long Island, and watched tanks draped in swastikas grind through the boulevards of Vilna. One family — three fates. History made and broke my family in the twentieth century."

Book Group meetings take place in the Library/Chapel. Refreshments are available at 7:00 p.m. and the discussion begins promptly at 7:30 p.m. A $5 donation per person is requested.

MEN OF TEMPLE AHAVAT SHALOM (MoTAS)

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"T-A-G for TAS"

When I was in my teens, I was a member of the youth group TAG at Wilshire Boulevard Temple. TAG stood for Torah-Avodah-Gem'lut Chasadim. You probably recognize this phrase if you're familiar with the song Al Shelosha D'varim, derived from Pirke Avot 1:2: Upon three things the world stands: Upon Torah, Upon service, and Upon acts of loving kindness.

In thinking about MoTAS and its role in the congregation, we've been a bit unbalanced with respect to T-A-G. We've had Torah in our monthly D'var Torahs, in our MoTAS Shabbat (coming in January), and our Men's Seder. We've had Gem'lut Chasadim in the financial support we provide to congregational activities. But our service has been more limited to building the Sukkah and providing food service at events.

This year, MoTAS is leveling things out. We're joining with the rest of the congregation in participating in Mitzvah Day on the first Sunday in November. We're going to be "Jews with Tools for the Schools", as the recent ECEC clean-up demonstrated that there are a number of simple repairs we can make around our school facilities to make them even safer, more functional and operate efficiently.

But that's not all: We're already planning to participate in the Sundays of Service in April 2015, working with the Social Action Committee and Food Forward to pick fruit from trees for the community.

The world stands on three things: Torah, Service and Good Deeds. We invite you to participate with MoTAS in standing strong in these areas.

Note: These commentaries are first posted as a featured entry on the MoTAS Website, www.tasnorthridge-motas.org; they are then shared in the Menorah the month after they are posted. You're invited to discuss this article at <http://wp.tasnorthridge-motas.org/2014/09/26/t-a-g-for-t-a-s-2/>.

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES

MITZVAH DAY

On Sunday, November 2nd join MoTAS (and the rest of the congregation) as we kick-off the 2014 Mitzvah Day. There is information on Mitzvah Day in the Social Action article, which I won't repeat here. What I will talk about is what MoTAS is doing: "Jews with Tools for the Schools". We'll be addressing a number of maintenance and repair items in our religious school facilities – primarily painting and light maintenance.

OCTOBER SPEAKER

On Sunday, November 9th at 8:45 AM, join the Men of TAS in Activity Center 3/4 for a scrumptious breakfast typically consisting of bagels, lox, eggs, cookies, fruit, juice, and coffee/tea (donations appreciated). Our normal monthly meeting (d'var torah, introductions, and a review of upcoming activities), starts at 9:00 AM, followed by our speaker. This month Dr. Allan Katcher will be speaking on "Managing Your Strengths."

Have you ever wondered why you're successful in some situations and not in others? In this presentation you will learn how to confirm and capitalize on your own personal strengths. Using The Life Orientation Method you will identify which of the four major life orientations characterize your way of coping with ordinary and stressful conditions. You will also learn about the strength-weakness paradox that demonstrates the inter-relationship between strengths and weaknesses. The presentation will also provide six basic strategies for making you more effective in dealing with people and helping them to deal effectively with you. Everyone will receive a complimentary copy of a book to further enrich your understanding.

DECEMBER ACTIVITIES

As a teaser, here are some activities to look forward to in December:

- Sunday, December 14 at 8:45 AM. Our December meeting will feature a Judaica show and tell. Every temple member I visit has a lovely Judaica collection. This is your opportunity to tell the story behind one or two pieces: Where did you get it, and why is it meaningful to you. Let's share our stories.
- Sunday, December 21 at 6:00 PM. Our December Men-Only Hangout will have a Chanukah theme. We will cook our favorite greasy Chanukah food and discuss our monthly topic (or not).
- Thursday, December 25, Time TBD. What do Jews do on Christmas? For many, the tradition is to go to a movie and have Chinese food. Why not do this with

OCTOBER SPEAKERS MEETING

Our October speaker was our own Aaron Solomon on how the temple operates. We had a very interesting discussion about the Temple's organizational structure, how the finances flow and how everyone is working together as a mutually supportive whole to address the temple's mission: to provide a caring and joyful community, with diverse opportunities to discover personal meaning through enriching and sanctifying our relationships (k'hillah kedosha), exploring our connections with the Divine (brit), celebrating Jewish Life and Torah (talmud Torah), and being a force for healing and justice in our world (tikkun olam). Everyone came away with a better understanding of Temple Ahavat Shalom and its staff.

MOTAS CHARITY GOLF TOURNAMENT

As I write this we're about a week away from the Golf Tournament; as you read it, the tournament will have just happened. We'll have a full write-up in the December Menorah, but all indications are that the event will be loads of fun and very successful. When you stop by the Temple, pick up a copy of the Calendar/Ad Book that the Golf Tournament produced; you'll find it a handy reference of all congregational activities. You can find a copy online at <https://www.coppy.com/s/37j1d0NsJjHE7jot>.

SPORTS SQUARES

Our sports squares program is continuing with new winners every week. You can find a list of the winners, and a description of the program, at <http://squares.tasnorthridge-motas.org/>.

At the Golf Tournament, it was announced that registration was open for the 2015 Super Bowl Squares. More information, including a printable registration form and a link to on-line registration, is at the link above.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

The Menorah can't contain all that MoTAS is doing! The easiest way to keep up to date with MoTAS is to read our weekly email newsletter, which is also posted on the MoTAS Website at www.tasnorthridge-motas.org. On the website you can find information on all our activities, sign up forms, biographies of MoTAS members, and records from MoTAS executive board meetings. We also have a Facebook group at www.facebook.com/groups/tas.motas that you can join. The best way to learn about us, however, is to come to a MoTAS event or a TAS Shabbat, introduce yourself to anyone with a MoTAS nametag, and participate. We want to build a relationship with you.

HAVE YOU EVER BEEN BULLIED AND WANT TO HELP DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT?

Back Off Bully is the perfect program for you. Back Off Bully was founded by two students who were both victims of bullying. Samantha is a 7th grade student and Shawn is a 12th grade student. Samantha is preparing for her Bat Mitzvah in June, and has created Back Off Bully for her Mitzvah project. Back Off Bully is an organization that is working to end the bullying epidemic and give self-confidence to those affected by it. Back Off Bully has partnered with Happy House, a non-profit organization founded by Nancy Cartwright, who is the voice of Bart Simpson, from the TV show "The Simpsons." Make sure to come to Mitzvah Day on November 2nd at TAS, for information on Back Off Bully and to buy a Back Off Bully bracelet for $2 and wear it proudly! For more information visit <http://backoffbully.org>.

ECEC

We have had an extremely busy month at the ECEC. For Rosh Hashanah, our preschoolers not only learned all about the new year, but they also counted and cooked with apples and different types of honey. Animal, a company that connects nature with Jewish holidays, brought bees to school so that the children could observe the activities of bees.

The children then learned that “sorry” is one of the hardest words to say. They are, for the most part, too young to understand empathy and to actually feel regret, but hopefully, this is the start of learning that trait.

Sukkot and Simchat Torah brought fruit and vegetables and plenty more cooking to the classrooms. Edible sukkahs were a favorite!

Of course we had our own Great American Shake Out here at ECEC. We were unable to participate in the actual city wide Shake Out event, due to school closing for Simchat Torah, but we practiced the day before and dropped and covered, and then evacuated the building when we got the all clear. We pray that we are never in a position to have to implement our training in the “real world.”

Our moms had a wonderful Rosh Chodesh night out at Stone Fire Grill. Don't worry; we did not forget the dads. They have a different event planned for November 9. These events allow our parents to get to know one another in an environment without children and we hope that everyone can attend as many of these events as possible.

This year, we are offering vision screening to our children. The California Elks Association has very kindly offered to sponsor having our ECEC children checked to see whether any one may need additional screening. Vision problems may lead to numerous other developmental and learning issues and so diagnosing this at an early age is imperative.

Remember our next Bim Bam Bimah is on November 14. This month the Monkeys will be hosting the dinner afterwards. We look forward to seeing you all.

Now we are looking forward to possibly having some cooler weather and preparing for Thanksgiving. Our children will help prepare a delicious feast and parents will be invited to join us. They will dress up in pilgrim and Native American costumes made at school and we will have a small songfest. This should be an exciting week for all of us.

Wishing you all a Happy Thanksgiving and a wonderful weekend with friends and family.

L'Shalom,

Tessa Cramer,
ECEC Director

DREAMS TO REALITY: PLANNING THE NEXT 100 YEARS

The above theme of the Women of Reform Judaism Pacific District Convention, which was held October 23-26 in Pasadena California, shares our story of years devoted to bringing Reform Jewish women together. We are committed to sharing this vision in the future.

Our Sisterhood attended the conference--16 women strong! Highlights included our Sisterhood women Erika Barnathan and Kathy Barker, writing the Friday night Shabbat service. Rabbi Shawna Brynjegard-Bialik and Cantor Emerita Patti Linsky led this beautiful service for over 180 women. Cantor Linsky led a wonderful song session after dinner that evening.

Sara Charney, WRJ Vice President, Programs and Education, was our invited guest. She led workshops and spent many hours working with the Sisterhoods of the Pacific District.

Dr. Madelyn Katz, Associate Dean HUC-JIR, was our Scholar-In-Residence. Her keynote address, "Leadership in the 21st Century" inspired all of the attendees. Madelyn and her husband are members of Temple Ahavat Shalom.

On Saturday night Rabbi Barry Lutz installed the new Women of Reform Judaism Pacific District Board which included Phyllis Bigelson as President and Erika Barnathan as an Area Director. Mazel Tov to our Sisterhood women!

TWO SCORE AND TEN YEARS AGO

MAX GOTTESMAN (PAST PRESIDENT)

I was talking to a congregant the other day about the early history of the temple. She heard that TAS was started about 50 years ago by a small group of Porter Ranch residents who realized the need for a Reform temple in the Northridge area. They bought the land, hired an architect and erected the sanctuary and school buildings we have today. Since this is wrong, I thought I should share the true story since I was involved from the inception, and I am one of only seven living founding members.

The first Reform temple in area was the North Valley Reform Temple (NVRT) formed in the fall of 1961 when a number of members of Temple Beth Torah, located in the Arleta/Pacoima area, decided to form a new temple partially based on the fact that young Jewish families were moving from the Arleta/Pacoima area to the Northridge area. In the early 1960s there were now two temples. North Valley Reform Temple, which held services and used the classrooms at the Methodist Church on Reseda Boulevard and Temple Beth Torah who continued to hold services and classes at their temple in Arleta.

Initially, North Valley had student rabbis, but as membership increased, they hired a full time rabbi, cantor and education director. In the fall of 1964, the officers of North Valley heard rumors that Temple Beth Torah was thinking of selling their building and moving to the Northridge area. It was also rumored that Beth Torah might want to merge with North Valley. Many members were former members of Beth Torah and still had “issues” with their former temple, so the informal proposal was rejected.

In early 1965 rumors of an intended move by Beth Torah were increasing so much so that the local office of the Reform movement, then known as the Pacific Southwest Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, became involved. At that time our Rabbi Emeritus Solomon Kleinman was the Director of the Pacific Southwest Council.

According to Rabbi Kleinman, two temples in the same area competing with each other for membership was not a good idea. Forming one larger temple was by far the better alternative. Several joint meetings were held with the board members of each temple. After lengthy discussions, objections were overcome and it was decided that a merger of the two temples would be the best solution. The board of trustees of each temple selected eight members to serve on a joint committee and prepare a new constitution for the new temple. This constitution was to be submitted to each temple by the end of August for ratification.

At our first meeting I was named Chairman of the committee and President of the new temple, pending approval by a vote of both congregations. We endured three weeks of arguing over many issues, mostly how “Reform” the new temple would be. Beth Torah leaned toward Conservative while North Valley was more Reform.

After much discussion and planning on how the new temple was to be structured, we had agreed on everything except for the name of the new temple. We had left that until last. Beth Torah members of the committee wanted the name to include the word “Beth” or “Torah.” North Valley members obviously wanted the words “North Valley.” After considering and rejecting several dozen names, someone said, “I’m tired. I’d love a little peace.” Someone else asked Rabbi Paskow, who attended many of the committee meetings, “What is the Hebrew word for “love?” He answered, “ahavah.” We already knew the Hebrew word for peace, thus the name Ahavat Shalom: lovers of peace. We had agreed on a name. The committee’s work was done. At the end of August both congregations ratified the constitution and a new temple was born.

TAS SOS (SUNDAYS OF SERVICE)

HARVEST FOOD - FIGHT HUNGER - BUILD COMMUNITY

That's Food Forward's mission: to reconnect people with people – through food – by bringing together volunteers and neighbors to share in the gleaning and distributing of locally grown food from private homes and public spaces which is then distributed to local food pantries and organizations serving those in need.

This December, TAS will again be teaming up with Food Forward to join this incredible organization in its dedicated effort to nourish the needy in our own community. And it's wonderful to volunteer with Food Forward since 100% of the harvested fruit and vegetables are donated to local food pantries across Southern California, including our social action partners SOVA and MEND.

Since forming in 2009, Food Forward has harvested over 1.25 million pounds of fruit from its Backyard Harvest Program, all of which has fed the hungry. That impressive number has more than quadrupled – to over 5.4 million pounds of food recovered, altogether – through the successful launch of its Wholesale Market Recovery Program earlier this year. Let's celebrate this holiday season by picking fruit for others in need. You'll be so glad you did!

- WHO: Everyone of all ages can join in the harvesting fun!
- WHAT: A local backyard fruit pick
- WHERE: Designated residence in the NW San Fernando Valley
- WHY: To supply our local food pantries with fresh fruit to nourish others in need in our community
- WHEN: Sunday, December 14, 2014

DEAR TAS,

I want to send thanks to a number of people in the congregation who have reached out to us over these last months as Paul and I have had our health challenges:

...to Joan Krimston and the Caring Community who have maintained contact with us, checking in regularly, visiting, sending goodies, making us feel that people really care about us. Paul enjoyed visiting with Barry Krowne, who brought the High Holy Day bag from the Caring Community.

...to Diane Levine who called and chatted and wished us a good year on behalf of the TAS Board.

...to Sharon Janis for providing excellent handicap accessible seating for us at services.

We have been TAS members for 45 years, and TAS continues to enrich our lives.

Warmly,
Elinor Christian

Thank you!

"A SWEET YEAR" AT THE JEWISH HOME

On Sunday October 12th, seven TAS members from just two families volunteered as Sunday Concert Companions at the Jewish Home. They assisted many elderly residents at Grancell Village by wheeling and walking them to the synagogue to attend their weekly Sunday concert. These "Sundays of Service" volunteers gave of their time and love to start the New Year out "sweetly" for others.

A heartfelt "thanks" goes to the wonderful Schachter family: Rhonda, Steve, Rachel, and Jessica, and to my two terrific younger kids: Shane and Nicole Turer.

"How beautiful a day can be when kindness touches it!"

TEMPLE AHAVAT SHALOM/HILLSIDE MEMORIAL PARK AND MORTUARY PRE-NEED PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

Taking time to plan for the future so that no unexpected costs arise during a time of loss is the greatest gift you can give your loved ones. Our thoughtful PRE-NEED PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM enables you to make all the arrangements in advance. Give your family peace of mind, knowing that you have made the right decision.

Temple Ahavat Shalom members will receive a Pre-Need Partnership Program savings on selected properties and special financing. In addition, each purchase will generate a $500 per space donation to Temple Ahavat Shalom from Hillside. This program is offered to better serve the Jewish Community and to provide additional support for the temple.
