NEW TAS PRESIDENT

JERRY HILECHER SAVORS AN ACTIVE LIFE BOTH ON AND OFF THE COURT

BY MYRNA DAVIS

Jerry Hilecher

Jerry Hilecher, our new TAS president, grew up in St. Louis, Missouri. He and his wife, Marcy, met about 32 years ago, at the St. Louis Jewish Community Center gym, while working out. They soon decided to get married and keep working it out for life. They have been married for 29 years. In 1989, Marcy got a job offer and they moved to the Valley.

Jerry played professional racquetball and, in 1981, he was a world champion at the age of 27, which brought him both a financial reward and the accomplishment of a goal. He played for about 15 years, professionally, and was in the top four for 10 years, retiring a few years after they moved here. Although not a professional player anymore, he still plays. Two years ago, he was in the National Doubles Championships in the men's 55+ category.

Jerry and Marcy have three grown children. Their son, Matthew, 26, is a film editor for Trailer Park, a company that produces film trailers enticing people to go see the actual film. Older daughter Sara, 24, works in the field of leadership training as a facilitator. Younger daughter Jahmie, 21, is a professional dancer and choreographer.

Jerry and Marcy have been temple members for about 20 years, which started when Marcy got a part-time job as a youth director at TAS. Temple membership followed, and then came Jerry's involvement in the Men's Club, now called MoTAS. After entering the golf tournament, he ended up running it. He eventually attained the positions of vice president and president of MoTAS. He was vice president of the board for nine years and is now temple president.

Jerry owns a company called Gateway TelNet, selling telecommunications and business phone equipment. Marcy is an independent contractor, working as a meeting planner, arranging meetings and conventions for such organizations as AIPAC and Women of Reform Judaism. When asked what he does in his spare time, Jerry says, "What spare time?" No doubt, running a business, being temple president and head of a family keep him busy enough.

Jerry's philosophy of life has been shaped by what he has accomplished. Racquetball was the microcosm of his life, and he learned to do whatever needed to be done to succeed. We are all accountable and can either do something about the problem or complain. He prefers to do something. Therefore, he advocates that, to get more out of your temple experience, get involved, volunteer, and make a difference — for both yourself and TAS.

TAS BOOK GROUP SELECTIONS FOR SEPTEMBER, OCTOBER, AND NOVEMBER

The Book Group meets in the Library/Chapel on the second Thursday of the month. Refreshments are available at 7 p.m. and the discussion begins at 7:30 p.m. A $5 contribution per person is requested. Feel free to join the group even if you have not read the book.

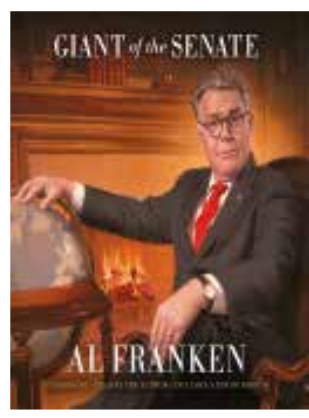

SEPT. 14 - "SASHENKA," BY SIMON MONTEFIORE

An adolescent schoolgirl from a privileged family of Jewish lineage, whose ideas of politics and revolution come from novels, Sashenka Zeitlin comes face to face with reality when she is arrested by czarist secret police in 1916 St. Petersburg, Russia. She becomes a double agent. By 1939, Sashenka has become a mother, married to a Communist official, living in relative ease and unscathed by Stalin's purges of 1937 and 1938. She embarks on a forbidden love affair, which will have devastating consequences. Sashenka's legacy cannot be put to rest. Montefiore's command of Russian history weaves a dramatic tale.

OCT. 12 - "GIANT OF THE SENATE." BY AL FRANKEN

This is a book about an unlikely campaign that had an even more improbable ending: the closest outcome in history and an unprecedented eight-month recount saga, which is pretty funny in retrospect. It's a book about what happens when the nation's foremost progressive satirist gets a chance to serve in the United States

Senate and, defying the low expectations of the pundit class, actually turns out to be good at it. It's a book about our deeply polarized, frequently depressing, occasionally inspiring political culture, written from inside the belly of the beast.

NOV. 9 - "LEAVING LUCY PEAR." BY ANNA SOLOMON

One night in 1917, Beatrice Haven sneaks out of her uncle's house on Cape Ann, Mass., leaves her newborn baby at the foot of a pear tree, and watches as another woman claims the infant as her own. The unwed daughter of wealthy Jewish industrialists, and a gifted pianist bound for Radcliffe, Bea plans to leave her shameful secret behind and make a fresh start. Ten years later, she returns to her uncle's house, seeking refuge from her unhappiness. But she discovers far more when the rum-running manager of the local quarry inadvertently reunites her with Emma Murphy, the headstrong Irish-Catholic woman who has been raising Bea's abandoned child — now a bright, bold, cross-dressing girl named Lucy Pear, with secrets of her own.

MOTAS AND MORE: TEMPLE MEMBERSHIP HAS MUCH TO OFFER

While much of our community's time is being spent on our financial problems, I'm asking a personal question: Why do you choose to belong to a temple or synagogue? I come to Shabbat services for spiritual fulfillment through song and prayer. I enjoy the friendship of folks who I share common values with.

I encourage you to write down your own answers. Then share them with your Jewish friends and family. Let them know that practicing Jewish song and prayer often leads to folks being happier.

Here are some fun events to participate in.

SHABBABAQUE ON FRIDAY, AUG. 18. The full menu is on the Shabbabaque event page. Our goal is for everyone to be happy. If you have special dietary needs, please contact us at shab-bbq@tasnorthridge-motas.org

PANCAKE BREAKFAST VOLUNTEERS NEEDED, SUNDAY, AUG. 27. This is the opening day of TAS Religious School and Men of TAS will host a free Pancake Breakfast for everyone — parents, teachers, staff, even the kids! We need volunteers to help set up, cook and clean up. Especially the latter. Click here to volunteer for the Pancake Breakfast.

MOTAS MONTHLY MEETING, SUNDAY, SEPT. 10, 8:45 TO 11 A.M. Speaker will be Stephen Rischall, an award-winning financial expert helping families plan for the future. Stephen will be speaking on Saving for College.

GOLF TOURNAMENT, MONDAY, SEPT. 18. You'll be raising funds to help MoTAS do all that it does — including contributing to the TAS General Fund. More information, including online and printable sign-up forms and donation forms, is available at <http://golf.tasnorthridge-motas.org> or by calling Barry Mann at (818) 360-8881.

SUKKAH-BUILDING TIME. The High Holy Days are nearly here. That means Sukkah-building time is nearing. In the past, we've gotten s'chach from Valley Crest Gardening, but they have changed owners and are no longer providing it. For those of you with gardeners, it would really help us if you could talk to them and see if they might be able to donate palm fronds about a week before we start building the sukkah (we'll be glad to provide a donation letter). We'll be building the sukkah on Sunday, Oct. 1; Yom Kippur is from sundown Friday, Sept. 29 to sundown Saturday, Sept. 30. If your gardener will be able to help, Click Here and we will be in contact with you.

I look forward to seeing you.

SISTERHOOD NEWS AND A CRUISE: AND YOU THOUGHT HANUKKAH IS ONLY 8 NIGHTS?

Sisterhood is hard at work planning all of our programs for the year. We have general meetings, religious observance events, fundraisers, leadership training events and programs to help our youth, our temple and our community. We hope you will participate in some of our programs this year.

Here are the dates of our general meetings and our religious observance events for the 2017-2018 year. Mark your calendars!

Our Sept. general meeting will be Thursday, Sept. 14, when David Kleinbrodt, a podiatrist at Kaiser Permanente, will educate us on how to take care of our feet and how to prevent foot pain, important for better mobility. David will teach us to treat our feet right.

Our annual Sukkot in the Sukkah will be Thursday, Oct. 5, and our annual paid-up luncheon will be Thursday, Nov. 12. We have a great speaker for the paid-up luncheon who will tell us all about how the Jewish immigrant experience has played a role in American theater. If you like theater, you will enjoy this presentation.

In December, we always celebrate Hanukkah. We hate to say goodbye to Hanukkah, so this year our celebration will be on the "10th night" of Hanukkah, Thursday, Dec. 21.

January and February will have some very interesting programs of general interest to all. In January, we are looking into doing a presentation on tax preparation Thursday, Jan. 18, and in February we want to explore gender identity (date to be determined). Our fabulous annual Women's Seder will be Thursday, March 15 – this is always a sold-out event. In April, we are planning a celebration of Israel, with Israeli foods and activities, on Thursday, April 19. Our Sisterhood Shabbat will be Friday, May 11, and our last general meeting of the year will be Thursday, May 17, when we will have Efrat Yakobi leading us in storytelling.

And wait, there's more! Our first Mahjongg Tournament of the year is Sunday, Oct. 15. Get your holiday shopping done without fighting crowds at the mall at our annual Holiday Boutique on Sunday, Nov. 19. If you are into cruising, join us March 22-26 for a Sisterhood cruise. This cruise includes mahjongg, so it's perfect for mahjongg players. It also includes Santa Barbara and Ensenada, so it's perfect for non-mahjongg players, too.

Sisterhood has three interest groups this year. In addition to our Rosh Chodesh and fourth-Wednesday mahjongg groups, we have a new group, called Chai Mitzvah. The group will meet once a month for nine months to learn from a curriculum provided by Chai Mitzvah, an engagement experience and a way to reconnect, recharge and re-examine your Jewish life.

Leadership training is important to us, so we have several leadership programs, such as our Area Day training last July and our Sisterhood Leadership Day in August. Next March, we are providing funding for Sisterhood members to attend the WRJ Fried Leadership Conference in Nashville, Tenn.

Sisterhood is continuing its programs to support our temple youth, including providing apples and honey for the religious school and ECEC in the fall, providing dreidels and gelt to the kids during Hanukkah, providing funding for the religious school, scholarships for the L'Taken Social Justice Seminar trip and support for the Alumni Outreach program. Together with MoTAS, we also have a campership program, and we provide gifts for Bar and Bat Mitzvah kids, confirmation kids and the graduation class.

We also have programs that support the temple. One of our more important ones is our program to provide staff to set up and clean up for 52+ onegs a year, with our delicious ice cream punch – yum! Another is our program to provide staff to keep our Judaica shop open so that everyone has easy access to Judaica.

If you like any of these programs, we hope you will support Sisterhood by joining at whatever level you wish ($45, member; $72, sponsor; $118, patron) – or by becoming a Friend of Sisterhood ($45). If you don't care for any of these programs, we would be interested in knowing what programs would interest you. Please call or email and let us know. We want your input!

ECEC

The ECEC camp has only one week left, and both children and teachers are sad to see this end. Our days have been filled with water play, baby ducks, martial arts, yoga, art and cooking, to name but a few of our activities.

Sisterhood members help sorting books in the ECEC Library.

The 2017/2018 school year begins on Aug. 28. Our teachers will spend the week prior to school opening preparing for the year. We will be having our Annual ECEC Open House and Shabbat on Friday, Aug. 25 at 5 p.m. This will be followed by a pasta dinner. Even if you do not have a child in our preschool, please stop by and see how great the school is looking. Thank you so much to Barry Krowne and Debby Lieber for subsidizing the painting of our school offices. Thank you, too, to our energetic Sisterhood ladies who have re-sorted our library and have now offered to come in regularly to the school to read to the children.

Rosh Hashanah begins soon after our first day back at school. It can be difficult for our very young children, who have just settled in to the routine of coming to school, to start having days when there is no school. They will adjust back quite quickly. This is to be expected and is not cause for concern.

We will start working on apples and honey. We will measure children to see how many apple heights they are. We will cook and bake with honey and with different kinds and colors of apples, and we always do a graph to see which type of apple is best liked by our children.

Walk time for the Infant Toddler Center.

Yom Kippur is a holiday that is sometimes complex for children. At this age, empathy is just developing and children are extremely self-centered. Many children say “sorry” because a grownup is standing over them demanding that they say the word. We could be asking them to say any word they could think of and they will say it just to stop the adult insisting they apologize. We want children to grow up saying sorry from within, because they are truly apologetic about what has happened, not because they are being forced to say something.

This takes time, and the best way to teach children this lifelong understanding and skill is to model it at correct times. Apologize to your children in a heartfelt tone when you have done or said something that requires you to do so. Let them see you saying sorry to your spouse after shouting at each other. Let them see you saying sorry to the stranger who you accidentally bump into. I believe that setting examples is the best way to teach sorry, please and thank you to your children.

Please check out our Amazon wish list to see if there is any way you can help out by purchasing supplies for the ECEC.

Enjoy the last days of summer. Wishing you all L'Shanah Tovah and may you have a meaningful fast.

RENTING AND SELLING NEW YORK CITY

As a licensed associate real estate broker in NYC, and former TAS member, I've had the privilege of helping TAS members and their friends and family to rent, buy, sell and invest in real estate in New York City.

Here's what my clients are saying:

As a parent of a child going to college in New York, and not being able to see things for myself, it was comforting to know that Karen Stone could be my eyes and offer endless solutions and options to where our son would live. Karen's knowledge of New York, coupled with her intelligence for knowing the right questions to ask on the renter's behalf put my mind at ease. Her team is amazing, her ability to consider the best options, and her quick responses were exactly what was needed at a time of feeling helpless. I strongly recommend Karen Stone for your real estate needs, in any way. If she doesn't have the answers herself, she will go out of her way to find them for you and put your mind at ease.
