

GALA HONOREES

OUR CAN-DO CANTOR

Cantor Kenneth Cohen – known to his TAS family as Cantor Ken – grew up in the suburbs of New York City, attending a mix of Jewish day and public schools. He graduated from the State University of New York at Binghamton, where he received a bachelor's degree in History and a master's in Ethnomusicology. He studied Opera at the Rubin Academy of Music in Tel Aviv, and, in 1982, was ordained at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America as a cantor of the Jewish faith. At New York University, he pursued his doctoral studies in Ethnomusicology, studying the Sephardic Jewish communities of Brooklyn, N.Y.

Cantor Ken spent 20 years as cantor at Temple Shalom in Greenwich, Conn., where he cultivated many caring, long-lasting relationships. Cantor Ken also held the position of Founding Director of Cantorial Studies at the Academy for Jewish Religion in New York for nearly two decades. The Academy trains spiritual leaders to serve all the modern streams (denominations) of Judaism. In

LES AND TYREE WIEDER

This is a story about two people from vastly different backgrounds who created a wonderful life together. By embracing each other's cultures and history, focusing on family, marriage, careers and the wonders of parenthood, the Wieders have enjoyed a rich and multi-faceted life.

Tyree is the former President of Los Angeles Valley College, where she served for an unprecedented 14 years, retiring in 2008. In 2009, she came out of retirement to serve as Interim Chancellor of the L.A. Community College District. Again in 2011, she left retirement to become the Interim President of East Los Angeles College. She was the first African-American female to serve as the head of these three institutions.

Among her distinguished awards are the Champion of Education Award from the Economic Alliance; the Harlan Ballin Community Service Award from the Valley Industry and Commerce Association (VICA); the Armand Arabian Award for Leaders in Public Service; the Woman of the Year for the 40th Assembly District; his role as Cantorial Director, he developed a new vision of the cantorate, focusing on the cantor as educator and facilitator, as well as emphasizing the collaborative leadership roles of cantors and rabbis. He was awarded the Jewish Music Leadership Award by the Academy for his role in shaping dozens of cantorial and rabbinical professionals, helping inspire future generations of the Jewish people.

Moving to the West Coast, Cantor Ken served congregation Beth Shir Shalom in Santa Monica for four years. There, he built a career center for those seeking employment, created interfaith bridges with the Baptist and Muslim communities, directed a religious school, and composed and arranged original music for the synagogue's eight-piece musical ensemble.

Witnessing the contraction of the modern American synagogue, Cantor Ken began to explore what lies in the hearts and minds of Jews of all ages with the goal of reinvigorating U.S. synagogue life. Toward this purpose, he has interviewed some 350 Jewish notables throughout the U.S. – speaking with Jewish songwriters, artists, dancers, educators, cantors, rabbis, spiritual mentors and heads of Jewish organizations. Listening to their passion, perspectives and wisdom, his hope is to share these inspiring conversations in various formats to create a fresh current of ideas within Judaism.

In 2015, Cantor Ken spent four months in Australia, serving as the hazzan of Emanuel Synagogue in Sydney, a community of more than 1,600 families. There, he was able to bring his relational work into the synagogue, energizing the community to discover its own passionate, fearless voice.

Upon returning to the U.S., he launched the Ignite Project, working with Jewish communities to cultivate relationships and help synagogues reimagine themselves for the 21st century.

Most recently, Cantor Ken has been part of our TAS family, where, for the past two years, he has worked closely with us through challenging times, inspiring and engaging our members so as to build a robust spiritual community in Northridge for years to come.

and recognition by the San Fernando Valley Business Journal as one of the “Women Who Mean Business” and one of the Valley’s 25 most influential business leaders.

An award-winning playwright for over 50 years, Les retired as head of the Performing Arts Department at Moorpark College, where he wrote, produced and directed theatrical productions. In addition to his theater work, he created and directed numerous TV commercials, documentaries and music videos. His play “Voices” received recognition for its creative production about the Slave Narrative tapes compiled in the 1930s. In 2005, he received the NAACP President’s Award for his work in fostering diversity in the theater. He also won the NAACP Image Award for writing and directing “Sojourner: The Story of Sojourner Truth.”

Prior to their marriage in 1981, Tyree converted to Judaism, and in 1986 they joined TAS, where their daughter Shavonne became a Bat Mitzvah in 1994 and a Confirmand in 1998. The Wieders have been an integral part of the TAS family ever since. Tyree is currently a Vice President on the Board of Trustees, having served as chair of the Personnel Committee where she professionalized our systems, updated reviews, improved record keeping and initiated contracts. Les has skillfully directed a number of highly successful annual Cantors Concerts. Tyree is a member of Sisterhood and together, they have attended every Gala and supported the Count Me In campaign each year.

In their retirement, they have enjoyed traveling the world, including Shavonne in many of their journeys. Les enjoys playing golf and continues his search for the perfect martini. Tyree spends a large chunk of her time working on Temple projects, the L.A. Valley College Presidents Circle and enjoying her large family.

Their most recent accomplishment has been publishing “Matzo Balls and Cornbread: A Love Story,” which chronicles their lives, their 38-year marriage and the blending of their very diverse backgrounds.

When asked what was the best thing he ever did in his life, Les answered, “Marrying Tyree. She gave my life purpose.”

UNIVERSAL MESSAGES OF PASSOVER

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI LYF, SENIOR RABBI

JEWES AROUND THE WORLD HAVE BEEN AND ARE ATTENDING PASSOVER SEDERS. WHAT ARE SOME OF THE UNIVERSAL MESSAGES OF PASSOVER?

One of the more powerful messages of Passover is that our past, as a people and as individuals, does not have to define our future. Our ancestors were the lowest level of society, slaves deprived of human freedom and destined for a life of misery.

But with the grace of God we were rescued from slavery, and destined to be a free people, living for over 3,000 years under the guidance of our Torah. Who would have believed that the slaves of Egypt would become an enduring people that continue to leave a lasting imprint on almost every area of human existence?

Consider that of the nearly 900 Nobel Prize winners, over 200 (or over 20%) were Jewish. This compares with a Jewish population that is but a tiny fraction of 1% of the humans alive today. Passover clearly shows us that even a people or an individual that starts with nothing can still achieve great things in this world. The past does not determine the future.

Yet, freedom and achievements are not the only guideposts from our Passover ancestry; in Shemot 10:3 we learn: "Let my people go so they can worship me." What does it mean to serve God as a Jew? The way we treat other people must be the right Jewish way. We are obligated to treat others the way that we want to be treated, with respect (Kavod) and dignity.

The late psychiatrist and Holocaust survivor Viktor Frankl was the author of the deeply profound book about what he learned from the Holocaust, titled Man's Search for Meaning. Incredibly, Dr. Frankl observed that even under the most horrific circumstances of the Holocaust, some people were able to rise above the suffering to treat others with kindness.

Later in life, Frankl came to believe that the American Statue of Liberty was wonderful, but insufficient guidance for human existence. He believed that the Statue of Liberty on the East Coast should be supplemented by a Statue of Responsibility on the West Coast. Indeed, freedom and responsibility to repair the world (Tikkun Olam) go hand-in-hand with our Torah values.

May we continue celebrating this Passover with gratitude for our freedom, and rededicate ourselves to making our community and world a better and more compassionate place!

ECEC

FOR ECEC, PLENTY OF FUN AND FUNDRAISING

On March 11, the ECEC held our annual fundraiser. This year, we decided to have a Champagne Brunch. We had a wonderful variety of vendors who tell us their sales were fantastic. Our silent auction resulted in many bidding wars, and the live auction had everyone waiting to see who would raise or stop the bid. The catering was delicious and provided by our Infant Toddler Center dad Scott Gordon of Gordon's Gourmet Catering.

I mentioned in my speech during the brunch that there were so many people who helped make this event the success it was. It definitely does take a village! Rabbi LYF, Cantor Ken and Aaron, thank you for your never-ending support and encouragement. Stephanie Pilder, Brunch Committee chair, you worked on this with such passion and commitment. Thank you so much. The committee – consisting of Diana Rukavina, Amy Ramirez, Karly Sands, Debbie Solis, Dan Sopher, Stephanie M o o r m a n , Shoshana Lewin, Valerie Ferraro, Leah Padow and Anat Cohen – worked on everything from vendors and auction items to vases and invitations. It was all beautiful. Thank you so much. Thank you to Marcy and Jerry Hilecher for donating our Grand Prize – a weekend at the Hyatt in Newport Beach – and to Wendy and Barry Krowne for the live-auction donation of a three-night stay at a variety of hotel choices anywhere in the world. Thanks to Anat and Aron Cohen for donating the champagne. We used it all! Thanks to Barry Krowne, Brian Hatkoff, Lynn Doner and Sandy Friedman for last-minute help when I really needed it.

The ECEC teachers put together really beautiful auction items which the parents loved. We have even been asked to duplicate some items and sell them at the final bid price to the second and third bidders. It was a truly wonderful day and I thank all who participated in supporting the ECEC.

The ECEC is now entering our final semester of the 2017-18 schoolyear. We held our Passover Seder on March 29, with the children helping Rabbi LYF and Cantor Ken lead the Seder. There was much singing, I searched for the matzah, and our children provided desserts.

We will celebrate the end of Passover a couple of days late with a Food Truck Evening. This will be on April 10 at 5:30 p.m. and, once again, we invite the entire community to picnic with us at the Temple. Watch for details of this event.

Enrollment for the 2018-19 schoolyear has begun. If you know of anyone who might be interested in our ECEC or ITC, please ask them to contact me. We are also planning on starting a Parent and Me class in the near future and would like to spread the word about this.

Wishing you a wonderful, family filled Passover and springtime.

SISTERHOOD TO CELEBRATE ISRAEL – AND ITSELF

Thanks to all of you, Sisterhood is having an excellent year, seeing increased membership and participation. We are pleased that so many of you value our Temple and our Sisterhood.

UPCOMING EVENTS INCLUDE:

ISRAEL CELEBRATION Thursday, April 19 at 7 p.m.: We will be celebrating Israel and Israeli Independence Day with food and fun. Come celebrate Israel's 70th birthday with us!

SISTERHOOD SHABBAT Friday, May 11 at 7:30 p.m.: In April, we celebrate Israel and in May we celebrate us at our annual Sisterhood Shabbat service. There is a community dinner preceding the service. Hate to cook? You can pay and dinner will be provided. Hate to pay? Bring your own dinner. We'll provide tables, challah, paper goods and beverages for everyone!

TELL US A STORY Thursday, May 17 at 7 p.m.: Back by popular demand, the talented Efrat Yakobi, a distinguished educator and an administrator at Heschel Day School, will lead us in storytelling using the Council Way, a unique method that fosters attentive listening, authentic expression and creative spontaneity. Council allows participants to communicate in ways that lead to a heightened sense of common purpose.

M&M BRUNCH Sunday, June 3 at 10 a.m.: This year, Sisterhood is recognizing all our volunteers, members and friends with a Most Marvelous Member Brunch. This brunch replaces the Donor luncheon we have had in the past. It's only $10 to attend, regardless of whether you volunteered a lot, a little or not at all. We will be installing our officers, honoring everyone who pitches in or supports Sisterhood, and, of course, having a fabulous silent auction of gift cards and other donations. We hope to see you there!

AREA DAY Sunday, July 8 at 9 a.m.: This year's Area Day is in the San Fernando Valley again at Temple Beth Hillel. This is a day of speakers, workshops, fun and friendship. It's a great way to grow spiritually, gain new ideas, develop leadership techniques, be creative and learn about some of the many things Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ), the umbrella organization for Reform Sisterhoods, does for Sisterhoods, for youth, for Judaism and for social justice.

Who are the women of TAS Sisterhood? We are a diverse group of women spanning all ages and backgrounds with different talents, education, careers and interests. We are married and single, with and without children. We are working and retired. We are Jews by birth, Jews by choice, and we identify as Jews. We come together for friendship and for the opportunity to associate with like-minded people who see value in advancing the goals of Reform Judaism and in living the Jewish life more fully.

Sisterhood members support our TAS community by helping the ECEC, Religious School, campers and our Youth Group. You will find Sisterhood members volunteering in Sisterhood events, Temple-wide projects and community organizations. The members and friends of the TAS Sisterhood believe in the principles of tikkun olam and take seriously the goal of social justice.

Support the work of Sisterhood – sponsor an oneg. Is there an event, a person or a memory you would like to honor in a special way? Are you celebrating a birthday or an anniversary? Are there people in your life you want to pay special tribute to, or would you like to honor the memory of loved ones? If you want to celebrate, to honor or to remember, please consider marking the occasion by sponsoring an oneg Shabbat. We would like to share the time with you, hear the story behind the sponsorship and help you make the occasion a bit more special. In addition, your sponsorship will go a long way to support the work of the Sisterhood for our Temple, our youth and the Jewish community. If you have questions or are interested in sponsoring an oneg, please contact the Temple office at (818) 360-2258.

APRIL 12 - MATZO BALLS AND CORNBREAD: A LOVE STORY BY TYREE AND LES WIEDER

Tyree and Les Wieder, Facilitators

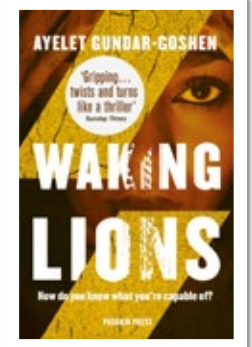

This is the recipe for a love story between two people from different backgrounds who made a life together: Les, a white Jewish man; Tyree, an African-American woman. The story focuses on their family histories, experiences growing up, careers, meeting, married life and the wonders of parenthood. It is a story of adventure that takes them to Hong Kong, Paris, Jerusalem, Budapest and Dublin. It is a story told with humor that expresses the joy they had while learning about and embracing each other's history and cultures, while merging those differences into a life that celebrates both. Tyree and Les have been members of TAS since 1986.

MAY 10 - WAKING LIONS BY AYELET GUNBAR-GOSHEN

Joyce Edelson, Facilitator

Dr. Eitan Green is a good man. He saves lives. Then, speeding along a deserted moonlit road in his SUV, he hits someone. Seeing that the man, an African migrant, is beyond help, he flees the scene. It is a decision that changes everything. Because the dead man's wife knows what happened. When she knocks at Eitan's door the next day, tall and beautiful, he discovers that her price is not money. It is something else entirely, something that will shatter Eitan's safe existence and take him into a world of secrets and lies. "Waking Lions" is a gripping, suspenseful and morally devastating drama of guilt and survival, shame and desire.

JUNE 14 - LISETTE'S LIST BY SUSAN VREELAND

Barbara Vosen, Facilitator

In 1937, young Lisette Roux and her husband, André, move from Paris to a village in Provence to care for André's grandfather Pascal who was a pigment salesman and frame maker. While selling his pigments in Paris, he befriended Pissarro and Cézanne, some of whose paintings he received in trade for his frames. When war breaks out, André goes off to the front, but not before hiding Pascal's paintings to keep them from the Nazis' reach. With German forces spreading across Europe, Lisette sets out to locate the paintings. Her search takes her through the stunning French countryside, where she befriends Marc and Bella Chagall. Through joy and tragedy, occupation and liberation, small acts of kindness and great acts of courage, Lisette learns to forgive the past, to live robustly and to love again.

RENTING AND SELLING NEW YORK CITY

As a licensed associate real estate broker in NYC, and former TAS member, I've had the privilege of helping TAS members and their friends and family to rent, buy, sell and invest in real estate in New York City.

Here's what my clients are saying:

As a parent of a child going to college in New York, and not being able to see things for myself, it was comforting to know that Karen Stone could be my eyes and offer endless solutions and options to where our son would live. Karen's knowledge of New York, coupled with her intelligence for knowing the right questions to ask on the renter's behalf put my mind at ease. Her team is amazing, her ability to consider the best options, and her quick responses were exactly what was needed at a time of feeling helpless. I strongly recommend Karen Stone for your real estate needs, in any way. If she doesn't have the answers herself, she will go out of her way to find them for you and put your mind at ease.
